And God is able to provide you with every blessing in abundance, so that by always having enough of everything, you may share abundantly in every good work. 2 Corinthians 9:8

What’s enough? How much, how long, how fast, how good….is enough? “Enough” is a rather odd word. By definition, it means sufficient or occurring in such quantity, quality or scope as to meet needs, demands or expectations. Its actual value is very relative and determined quite individually. I grew up in a home, perhaps similar to many of you, where there was not an abundance – but always enough. It evidently didn’t seem like enough to some of my friends, but actually was an abundance to several of our neighbors. It’s all relative.

Having just come through Thanksgiving where shamefully perhaps the only question was whether there was enough whipped cream for all our pumpkin pie, it’s easy to forget how many people struggle with the very real issue of having enough. This is really not meant to make us all feel guilty for enjoying our abundances which we truly are very thankful for. But perhaps we can think for a moment about those times in our life when we knew we couldn’t fill the gas tank yet, or had pancakes for dinner out of necessity – not just for the fun of it. I know I forget sometimes. Remembering helps me be more generous and mindful of the needs of others.

This is the time of year that children stress over whether or not they’ve been “good enough” to get what they want from Santa. Unfortunately, there are many people who have been made to feel they are not good enough to be treated with dignity – perhaps not even good enough to enter a church. Words and gestures of kindness are pretty easy to share if we just keep in mind how valuable it can be to those around us. We are all “good enough” in God’s sight – shortcomings and all. By God’s grace we get a fresh start each day to be the best us we can be. Now is an especially valuable time to enter into our days filled with that God-given grace and a determination to share it with those we encounter.

It’s easy sometimes to get bogged down in doing just enough to get by. It’s often not intentional. Churches can become complacent – especially when they’ve been doing good things routinely. It’s easy to feel like we’re doing enough and we’re getting tired. Sometimes what we need to do most at that point is to maybe completely stop doing a “just enough” and start something brand new that generates new interest and energy. One of my greatest stresses this time of year is having time enough. There’s always soooo much to do and it seems so little time to do it. I need to remind myself that every day we each have the exact same number of minutes to use. Am I using mine wisely or fussing over unnecessary details? Especially during this season, are we focusing on the things that matter most and are going to keep us mindful of receiving the most important gift we have ever been given? Is there enough room in our lives and our schedules to do the work God calls us to? There are certainly times when things like illness, loss, broken relationships or other life challenges keep us from feeling abundantly blessed. If you are struggling with such things, my prayer for you is that you might be surrounded by many with more than enough that can share abundantly in every good work and bless you in the ways you need blessing. May those of us with so much to be thankful for find enough ways to share enough blessings with enough people to make the kind of difference Christ came to make in this world. May you all have a most blessed Christmas and joyful New Year.

Blessings and Peace,
Pastor Elaine

SERVICE

CHRISTMAS EVE SERVICES
Tuesday, December 24th

5 pm - Family Service

Designed for families with young children, this service involves our Sunday School children and youth in sharing the Christmas story through a child-friendly Lessons and Carols. It will include our singers, and chimers, as well as the traditions of candle lighting and “Joy to the World”.

7:30 pm - Lessons & Carols

The Christmas Story is told through scripture and music, with both the Adult Choir and Bell Choir taking part.

11 pm – Word and Sacrament

This service includes the Sacrament of Holy Communion as we welcome the birth of the Christ Child.

Candle lighting at all three services.
THE ADVENT STOCKING

The Advent Stocking Children's Message Series will begin on Sunday, December 1 (the first Sunday of Advent). The pastors and youth will continue the favorite children's message series that will last throughout the Holiday season.

In this series, one family per week will be invited to take home The Advent Stocking and fill it with an Advent or Christmas object that is special to them. Then, on the following Sunday, they will bring the stocking back to worship. Pastor Butch, Pastor Elaine, or one of the youth will then be challenged to come up with a children's message on the spot! The Advent Stocking is always full of surprises, good holiday fun, and hopefully an important message!

SUPPORT THE SUNDAY SCHOOL ANGEL TREE FOR BETHANY CHILDREN'S HOME

In the near future, you should see Angels appearing on our Angel Tree for Bethany Children's home. There will also be lists posted near the Angel Tree with suggested gifts. Either take one of the lists with you when you go shopping, or write the gift you plan to purchase on the back of one of the Angels and take it with you. Tape one of the angels on your NEW and UNWRAPPED gift and place it under the Angel Tree no later than Sunday, December 8th. Thank you for your continued support of this mission.

Holiday House Tour Sunday
December 1, 2019
12:00 pm-5:00 pm

The Holiday House Tour Committee is anticipating the ninth annual Holiday House Tour with great eagerness. As we enjoy the beautiful fall landscape, we think of the holidays to follow.

The homeowners on the tour are eagerly awaiting December 1 when they will open their doors to welcome visitors.

We can enjoy another successful event with the help of our Zwingli family. You can participate by purchasing a ticket @$20 remembering that the proceeds benefit The Ronald McDonald House of Philadelphia.

You can also participate by assisting the homeowners as a host in one of the homes. We also need people to assist in parking at some of the homes. So that you don’t miss the tour because of your participation we invite you to enjoy a preview meal and tour the night before on Saturday, November 30.

We need baked goods to serve at the refreshment table at Zwingli during the tour as well as baked goods for the reception following Jon Leight’s concert in the evening.

Please mark your baked goods specifying for which event they are intended. Please sign up on the bulletin board in the atrium.

We warmly welcome you to be part of this wonderful event heralding in this most blessed season, celebrating our welcoming community.

CHRISTMAS CONCERT
Sunday, December 1, 2019
7:30 pm

After the day’s house tour festivities, relax Sunday evening at a free Christmas concert at Zwingli United Church of Christ featuring the Souderton Men’s Alumni Chorus, led by Jon Leight. They will entertain us with beautiful Christmas music. No tickets required - a free will offering will be held. Refreshments will follow the concert as we celebrate the beginning of our Advent and Christmas seasons!
CHRISTMAS CAROLING

Singers of all ages are invited to meet at Zwingli on Monday, December 16 at 6:30 pm. We will carpool to a new development in Telford where we will spend about an hour (6:45 – 7:45 pm) singing to the residents. Upon returning to Zwingli, you may go directly to the church parlor for refreshments or join those who wish to carol at a few homes near church before feasting. Bring any jingle bells you may have; they really added a lot last year. Also bring flashlights and a few cookies to share afterwards. Carol books, hot chocolate and juice will be provided.

CONTINENTAL BREAKFAST
SUNDAY, DECEMBER 8
8:00 A.M.

Join us for a continental breakfast on Sunday, December 8, beginning at 8:00 a.m. The Ministry of Shepherds will provide the food – you provide the fellowship! We'll finish in time for worship at 9:00 a.m.

Please plan to attend this important meeting involving the operations and leadership of your church. If you have any questions or proposals for the agenda, please contact me at 215-723-9338.

Questions on the budget can be directed to the Ministry of Stewards whose members are Kristie Lowery (Chairperson), Tara Kuhnsman, Jessica Chinault-Jalboot and Joanne Kramlik. See you on December 8th!

Healthy Moments
Coping with Holiday Stress
Kristie Lowery, Faith Congregation Nurse

"Be still, and know that I am God; I will be exalted among the nations, I will be exalted in the earth." Psalm 46:10

"It's beginning to look like Christmas...... The most wonderful time of the year....." Some people love the holidays. Others find them to be very stressful and would rather not deal with all the demands of the holiday. It is easy to become overwhelmed when you are trying to decorate, shop, make cookies, and prepare for holiday festivities. So how can you deal with the stress and still enjoy the holidays? The Bay Area Christian Church (BACC) shared an article, titled 4 Ways to De-Stress the Holidays. It adds some humor for those struggling with the stress of the holidays, but does help to put it into perspective. Their recommendations are listed below:

1. Keep the mornings merry

Very early in the morning, while it was still dark, Jesus got up, left the house and went off to a solitary place, where he prayed. Simon and his companions went to look for him, and when they found him, they exclaimed: “Everyone is looking for you!”
Mark 1:35-37 (NIV)

Even Jesus knew that you have to protect your mornings. During holiday time, you might have kids or relatives trying to track you down because your schedule is in flux, but you need to stay focused on holding onto solitary time in the morning. This is where you can read the Bible, reflect through prayer, and refocus yourself for each day. If you can start your day with spirituality, you have something to work with during the day!

2. Schedule like Santa

Santa never seemed stressed! He worked hard and he played hard. Set up your schedule to do the same. In the scripture below, you’ll notice that these people were trying too hard to control everything. They made big plans and didn’t leave room for God. Avoid this trap by setting up times with friends and family over the holidays, but don’t pack your schedule so full that you leave God out. You’ll be less overwhelmed, and enjoy the season more.

"Some of you say, “Today or tomorrow we will go to some city. We will stay there a year, do business, and make money.” But you do not know what will happen tomorrow! Your life is like a mist. You can see it for a short time, but then it goes away. So you should say, “If the Lord wants, we will live and do this or that.” But now you are proud and you brag. All of this bragging is wrong. James 4:13-16

3. Pray away the worry

If you feel stressed, don’t try to fake it that everything’s fine. Acknowledge your concerns in prayer and decide to put your trust in God.

“Do not worry about anything, but pray and ask God for everything you need, always giving thanks. And God’s peace, which is so great we cannot understand it, will keep your hearts and minds in Christ Jesus." Philippians 4:6-7 (NCV)

4. Remember What Matters

"It is better to eat a dry crust of bread in peace than to have a feast where there is quarreling." Proverbs 17:1 (NCV)

Ask yourself: what’s really important during these holidays? Is it really worth it to spend your time worrying about which gift to buy, which gift you received, your finances, or your vacation? Sometimes we need to sit back and remember what matters most. It’s the relationships that give our lives meaning, so we should remind ourselves to let the stress go and embrace what’s important.

May you all have a Merry De-stressed Christmas as we focus on the Reason for the Season – Jesus!!

SEPTEMBER BLOOD DRIVE RESULTS

The results are finally in. A total of 10 pints of blood were successfully donated. The goal was 18 pints and only 15 signed up. Consequently this is a bit disappointing. It actually leaves us 11 pints shy of our total last year for the same four drives.

The next drive will be held at Zwingli on Monday, January 20, Martin Luther King Day. So here’s the plan to get next year off to a rousing start. Everyone who is planning to donate in January should bring along another person. BUT not just anyone. Bring along a blood relative. That should guarantee success!

TRANSPORTATION MINISTRY

Did you know we provide transportation for members to attend worship, go to doctor’s appointments, etc.? Just give the office a phone call. It’s a ministry we provide for members!
THE CHRISTMAS FUND

UCC Christmas Fund Appeal: The Christmas Fund for the Veterans of the Cross and the Emergency Fund is a Special Mission Offering administered through the United Church Board for Ministerial Assistance, the charitable arm of the Pension Boards. Funds provide direct financial support to those who serve the church and are facing financial difficulties. Active and retired clergy, lay employees, and their surviving spouses may be eligible for the Supplementation of Small Annuities, Supplementation of Health Premiums, Emergency Grants, and/or Christmas “Thank You” Gift Checks. This offering is collected on the Sunday before Christmas (12/22).

On July 1, 2013, Murphy finished physical therapy and struggled to breathe. He was transferred to CHOP and placed in a cardiac care unit “pod”. A pod is a small room with four critically ill babies. There is not enough room for the parents to stay. Each day, Murphy’s parents submitted a request for an overnight room. If selected, they were assigned a room the size of a small closet with a single bed, small nightstand, and lamp. One parent slept in the bed while the other slept on the floor. If they could not get a room, they drove home and returned the next morning, adding further stress to their day. The uncertainty of accommodations continued until a social worker introduced them to the Gift of Life Family House.

At the Gift of Life Family House, mom and dad had access to hotel style amenities, a beautiful room and bathroom. The Family House provided home cooked meals and snacks, transportation to and from the hospital, and even haircuts! On July 1, the Leakes settled into their room and got a call from the transplant coordinator, informing them that an offer for lungs was Zwingli UCC members Carolyn and Billy Leake welcomed their son, Murphy into the world on September 7th, 2012. Murphy quickly showed signs of respiratory problems. After many hospitalizations and consultations with fourteen different specialists, doctors determined that Murphy had Primary Pulmonary Vein Stenosis. Murphy’s pulmonary veins were partially blocked restricting the flow of oxygenated blood from his lungs to his heart. Children with this very rare disease have a “guarded prognosis at best.” Murphy went to the cardiac catheter lab every 6 to 8 weeks where surgeons opened his pulmonary veins. After his fourth procedure, the blockage showed no signs of slowing. His lower left vein was completely blocked. In order to survive, Murphy needed a lung transplant.

The Advent Missioner’s Project for 2019 supports Children’s Hospital of Pennsylvania’s Gift of Life Family House. The Gift of Life Family House provides temporary, affordable lodging, meals, and supportive services to parents and caregivers of children needing medical transplants serving as a “Home away from Home.” made. Being so close to Murphy, they were able to rush over to the hospital and pray with the Chaplin while waiting for Murphy’s only chance at life. On July 2, 2013, Murphy became the 11th child under age one to have a bilateral lung transplant in UNOS region two EVER!

Murphy’s recovery was not smooth. Doctors reminded Carolyn and Billy repeatedly that this was an experimental procedure. For the next 219 days, Murphy remained in the Pediatric Intensive Care Unit at CHOP. Carolyn and Billy lived at the Gift of Life Family House. During their stay, they were treated to Thanksgiving dinner with transplant families from around the world, met life-long friends, and even woke up on Christmas morning to gifts outside the door. Each gift was carefully selected for each member of the family, including Murphy.

The Gift of Life Family House is not as well known as Ronald McDonald House. The concept is new and the Gift of Life Family House at CHOP is the only one in the world. During the Leake’s stay, the home was celebrating their second year of operation and were not always at full capacity. The residence now has a waiting list. Because of this, they are currently building two more guest rooms and have upgraded their shuttle to accommodate more people. All of this is accomplished through donations. Families that stay pay a minimal fee subsidized by donations.

In honor of Murphy’s life and the numerous children in our congregation that have been treated at CHOP, we invite you to support the Advent Mission project to the Gift of Life Family House. Please help continue this important work for other families that are on their transplant journeys.

ALL SAINTS SUNDAY OFFERING

All Saints Day was observed on Sunday, November 3rd and a special offering of $666.00 was received to reimburse the Conference for providing supplemental insurance coverage for our retired clergy and their spouses. SUNDAY SCHOOL UPDATE
Did you know that we regularly have between 16 and 22 students in our Children’s Sunday School classes? Because of the larger group (and vast differences between 3 year olds and 11 year olds), most weeks we are having 3 Sunday School classes. Many weeks, we are making direct contacts to fill a couple of our 6 teacher spots. Are you able to share your time with our students? Curriculum is available. Ask Monica Jalboot or Erin Chalmers any questions you may have. You may sign up for available teaching and assistant spots at https://www.signupgenius.com/go/9040549af9q2aa20-sunday. Thank you for prayerfully considering how you can help!

SAVE THE DATE FOR OUR NEXT INTER-GENERATIONAL SUNDAY SCHOOL - 2/16/20
Thank you to everyone who participated in our October Inter-generational Sunday School. The feedback we received was really positive. We had about 45 people help make Socks of Love for folks in Norristown, soup for Zion’s Table of Plenty, centerpieces for our Keystone Thanksgiving Baskets, and Angel Tree angels. We wanted to let you know that 2/16/20 will be our next Inter-generational Event. The theme will be around loving yourself, with a focus on taking care of yourself. Keep an eye on a future mailing for details!

ZWINGLI NURSERY SCHOOL UPDATE

In November, we continued learning about Fall and made a variety of fall projects. The older children learned the letters Ee, Ft, Gg and Hh and the numbers, 3 and 4. The younger students learned the shape of a rectangle and the color yellow. We also held Parent-Teacher conferences. During this holiday season we are thankful for our students and their families!
